Finance & Investment

COMPANY

Space4Good is an innovative social enterprise providing environmental insights to unlock, accelerate, and scale sustainable impact for our planet and its people. We combine satellite Earth observation, local geodata, and AI to map, analyze, and model complex ecosystems—focusing on deforestation, nature regeneration, carbon, and biodiversity. Our flagship product, Forester, supports forest managers with real-time alerts, predictive analytics, and user-friendly reporting to fight illegal deforestation. We are a small, international and value-driven team of 15 people operating across the globe.

INTERNSHIP GOAL

Support Space4Good's fundraising efforts while contributing to internal financial planning and reporting.

INTERNSHIP TIMELINE

Start: flexible from May 2025 onwards

Duration: min. 3 months

RESPONSIBILITIES

You will assist the Space4Good team in both external investor engagement and internal financial management. Externally, you'll help map and qualify impact investors, venture capital firms, and grant opportunities, while also supporting the development of pitch materials, impact reports, and due diligence documentation. Internally, you'll contribute to financial overviews and forecasting models that guide strategic planning, budgeting, and operational decision-making. This includes refining existing templates, consolidating revenue and cost data, and helping build intuitive dashboards for key stakeholders. Your work will help ensure Space4Good has the financial insight and clarity needed to grow its impact sustainably. You'll collaborate closely with the leadership team and gain hands-on experience in both social enterprise finance and investment readiness.

PROFILE

We are looking for somebody who has:

- A background in finance, economics, or business, with a strong interest in impact investment.
- Experience or interest in startup funding and/or sustainability financing.
- Comfort with numbers and financial modeling.
- Strong written and verbal communication skills.
- Detail orientation and ability to work independently and responsibly.
- Current enrollment in a relevant university program.
- Genuine interest in Space4Good's mission and environmental tech.
